

In the activity diagram, we have three swimlanes: Student, Application, and Printer. The flow begins with the Student stakeholders expressing their desire to use the printing module and ends with the Student obtaining the printed documents. This module encompasses three core activities in the following sequence: Upload/select files, configure, and choose a printer.